

The Sacred & Solemn Season of Advent

We begin this weekend a penitential time, a time of self-denial, a time of work on our self-control and rid ourselves of that toxic attitude of 'entitlement'.

Advent (Latin for 'arrival') is a time we spend focused on our preparedness for the Lord's Second Coming, when the Lord Returns to bring time and this world to an end. Jesus warns us in the Gospel today to 'stay awake because you do not know the day when the Master is coming'.

Being ready for the moment Jesus will suddenly appear is what our life is for, everything else is a distraction.

Being ready means being in a 'State of Grace' with the Blessed Trinity present in the soul and our wilful co-operation with God's Holy Plan for humanity.

These next few weeks of Advent are truly blessed and graced by God for us. Let's live Advent well and grow in our relationship with the Lord.

Family learning from the Catechism:

Advent is a penitential time, time of denying the self, overcoming entitlement and putting God first. Here is what the Catechism has to say about penance:

1434 The interior penance of the Christian can be expressed in many and various ways. Scripture and the Fathers insist above all on three forms, fasting, prayer, and almsgiving, which express conversion in relation to oneself, to God, and to others.

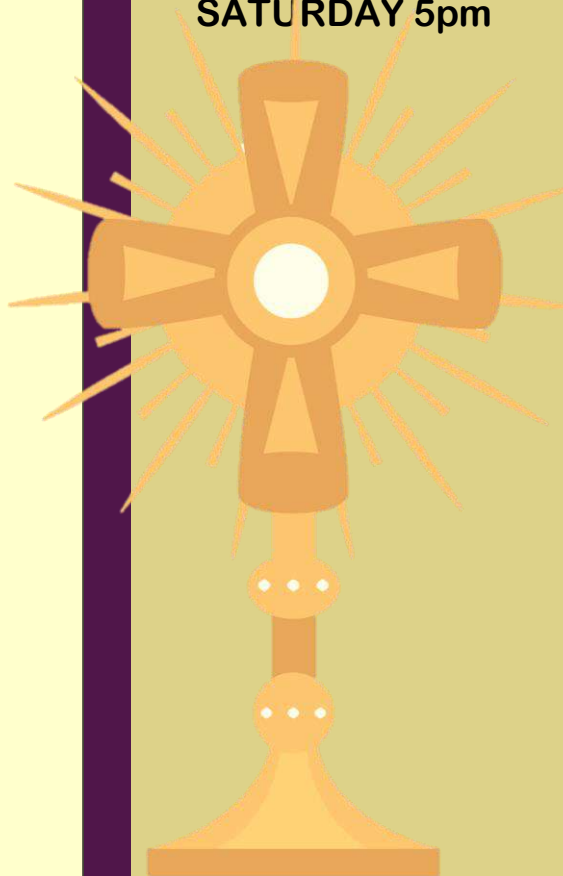

1435 Conversion is accomplished in daily life by gestures of reconciliation, concern for the poor, the exercise and defence of justice and right, by the admission of faults to one's brethren, fraternal correction, revision of life, examination of conscience, spiritual direction, acceptance of suffering, endurance of persecution for the sake of righteousness. Taking up one's cross each day and following Jesus is the surest way of penance.
