WHAT'S INSIDE THIS

WEEK:

Let us walk in the Light of the Lord

Advent and Christmas Messages

Covenant With the Poor – Emmaus Appeal

FATHER MARK WRITES: THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: LET US WALK IN THE LIGHT OF THE LORD

Have you ever felt lost in the dark? As the days grow shorter and the nights longer, we sense it—our deep need for light. Light is life. We need it physically, emotionally, spiritually.

Without light, there's no food. Plants need light to grow, and we need plants to live. Light gives warmth and energy. Without it, the world grows cold. Even our bodies depend on light to produce vitamin D, which strengthens our immune system.

We need light for our physical health, and we need it for our emotional health too. Darkness can lead to depression, but light brings hope and joy. That's why we love Christmas lights—why we decorate our homes and go out to see them. We know we need more light in the darkest season.

Light also makes us feel safe. A dark alley feels dangerous. A dark house can seem spooky. And isn't it true that problems seem bigger at night? In the light of day, they shrink.

But we need light for our minds as well. In a well-lit room, you move confidently. In the dark, you hesitate. Living in the dark is no fun—and living in the dark about your future, your family, your finances is even worse. We want light to show us the way forward.

Our hearts can be dark too. We're born with original sin, our wounded human nature. From this stems concupiscence, which pulls us toward selfishness and pride, greed, envy and other ugly things. Those things thrive and fester and grow in the dark. But when true light shines on them, they vanish like fog in sunlight.

We need light. Scripture tells us that the light we need is ultimately God Himself. We need His truth in our minds and His peace in our hearts. Without Him, we don't know how to live. That's why the Bible begins with light:

God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. And God saw the light was good. Genesis 1:3

Life needs light. Without light, there is no life. And Jesus says:

I am the light of the world. John 8:12

God is the author of light—and He is our light.

Advent and the Promise of Light

This weekend we begin Advent, a season of waiting and preparation for the birth of Jesus—the true Light of the World. Each Sunday we light candles on our Advent wreaths to mark the journey from darkness to light.

We'll also hear from Isaiah, the "prince of the prophets." He lived in a dark time for Israel: divided, under attack, morally adrift. Isaiah names their failures but then looks forward to a brighter future:

O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord! (Isaiah 2:5)

What Does It Mean for Us?

Two things as we begin Advent:

First, listen. Spend time with the Lord and let His Word enlighten your life. I encourage you to add just five extra minutes of prayer or Scripture each day until Christmas. If you're not sure where to start, sign up for our daily Advent devotional emails - short reflections with Scripture, music, and prayer. Or explore resources like Hallow, Pray-as-you-go, or Fr Mike Schmitz's "Waiting Well." And in your car, why not swap secular music for Christian music?

Listening to God's truth and praising Him—that's walking in the light.

Second, pursue peace. Advent is the season of peace and goodwill. Maybe that means putting down your sword. Is there someone you're in conflict with - a spouse, sibling, parent, former friend? Are you ready to battle because they let you down, they didn't show up; they messed up; or they owe you? Who will make the first move? Usually, it's the more mature person. Why not be that person this Christmas?

This world can feel dark. But God invites us to step out of the dark and walk in His light—His peace and His truth. There is no life without light, and there is no light without God.

Let us walk in the Light of the Lord...Lead, Kindly Light...

SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND

Covenant With the Poor (CWP) Appeal – Supporting Emmaus Hampshire: Our CWP appeal this weekend is to support the work of Emmaus, a homelessness charity based in Winchester, who provide people with a stable home, individual support and life-changing opportunities. Our appeal is to raise funds to furnish their new well-being centre. The new centre will be used for counselling sessions, help companions overcome addiction and family issues, and provide a private space for the Emmaus support staff to work with companions in privacy looking at what skills they have and that can be developed, and what kind of job they can do. The centre will also provide space for families to come together to rebuild relationships. Further details are available in the separate leaflet. There will be a collection at all Masses - donations can also be made direct to the Parish bank account but please ensure you use "CWP" as a reference. Thank you. Please click HERE for more information. Thank you for your generous support!

ADVENT

Let there Be Light - Daily Messages from Fr Mark during Advent and Christmas: Fr Mark will again be offering a daily email message during Advent and Christmas. They'll contain a short reflection and usually some Scripture and an image to help you enter into the season. Sometimes, there'll also be a suggestion of how you might go deeper, for those who wish.

During this Advent we'll be reflecting on the theme, "Let there be Light". Light is a necessary part of life. It provides clarity and direction so we can move forwards on our way. It provides safety and security. But sometimes, especially at this time of the year, we feel burdened by the the darkness all around us. Our heavenly Father wants us to know His Son, Jesus, the Light of the World, and wants us to walk in His light. He wants us to to make our pilgrim way through this world, that often seems so dark and difficult to navigate, with Jesus as our guide. God wants to light our way, but we have to choose to walk in his light. If you've signed up for these before, you'll be automatically included (just message to say if you'd like to come off the list). If you're new, we'd love to welcome you - you can register by clicking here and you should automatically be included.

Welcome to Baptism of Laurence and Margo Dineen who were baptised last week at St Peter's Church. May God bless them with His love and grace, today and always.

Do You Love Poetry? Then You Won't Want To Miss This Invitation From Deacon Martin: Every year, on 7th December, since I first came across the poem as an 19 year old, I have read (aloud) Gerard Manley Hopkins's wonderful poem The Wreck of the Deutschland with family and friends. (As you may know, the events in the poem take place on December 7th, the eve of the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception.)

So, I'll be reading the poem again this year, and you're welcome to join me - at 7:30pm on Sunday 7th December. We will be gathering together "virtually" (via Microsoft Teams), because this makes it easier for more people to take part. You can even extend the invitation to friends and family outside Winchester. You don't need to install any extra software: all you need is a web browser on your computer, tablet or mobile phone.

The reading should only take around 15 minutes, but we can spend as long as you want talking about the poem! I'd be delighted if anyone wants to share the reading of the poem - it would be good to have at least 2 or 3 voices. If you'd like to join me, please let me know as soon as possible, via email mmcelroy@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk so that I can give you a link to the online meeting, and also to help you access a copy of the poem.

CATECHESIS

Start of First Holy Communion Preparation with Led Adoration and Advent Jesse Tree Activity Sunday November 30th 12:30pm – 2:00pm: All are welcome to a time of led Eucharistic Adoration with Fr Mark in St Peter's Church at 12:30pm, followed by a family Advent Jesse Tree activity in the Pastoral Centre Hall. Those beginning this year's First Holy Communion preparation will stay on for a short meeting to formally begin.

If you would like to attend adoration and the Jesse Tree activity but are not in this year's First Holy Communion preparation group, please email hpope@stpeterswinchester.org.uk by Friday November 28th (numbers needed for resourcing).
