

The Magi have arrived!

Everything we see and hear at Mass during these 40 days of Christmastide explains something more about the Christ Child.

Last Tuesday we celebrated a moment of 'Epiphany' when Melchior, Casper and Balthazar arrived, and we celebrate another 'epiphany' this weekend.

We hear the Prophecy of Isaiah fulfilled in the Gospel, a prophecy foretelling the first Advent (or arrival) of Jesus.

As the waters of the Jordan River were poured over God in the Flesh, the sacrament of Baptism was established, and by our knowing who it really is lying the manger, we know the promises He makes to those who receive His Sacraments.

As we celebrate this epiphany, the Baptism of the Lord, let's remember to thank God for the gift of our own Baptism and what it promises to those who are faithful.

Parish Pilgrimage Our Lady of Knock

Our friends at Northern Star are busy putting together a package for us and before committing to anything we'd like to canvas interest for a Parish Pilgrimage to Knock, Ireland.

As usual, the Pilgrimage will take place during Monday – Friday and will not include a weekend. It is likely to take place in May or June 2026. We will arrange transportation from the Parish to the airport and back again. The Pilgrimage is open to all.

Family learning from the Catechism:

Some food for thought on this Solemnity of the baptism of the Lord.....

1272 Incorporated into Christ by Baptism, the person baptized is configured to Christ. Baptism seals the Christian with the indelible spiritual mark (character) of his belonging to Christ. No sin can erase this mark, even if sin prevents Baptism from bearing the fruits of salvation. Given once for all, Baptism cannot be repeated.

1273 Incorporated into the Church by Baptism, the faithful have received the sacramental character that consecrates them for Christian religious worship. The baptismal seal enables and commits Christians to serve God by a vital participation in the holy liturgy of the Church and to exercise their baptismal priesthood by the witness of holy lives and practical charity.
