

The Blessed: The Beatitudes

Today, the 4th Sunday of Ordinary Time, is the last Sunday of Christmastide.

For almost 40 days we have been asking ourselves 'what child is this' as we've looked upon the Nativity Scene – a moment frozen in time.

We have had a number of revelations (or 'epiphanies' to use the Greek word) telling us something more about the Baby in the Manger:

Gold for a King, Frankincense for God, Myrrh foretelling a significant death, He is the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, He is The Lamb of God and the Light of the World. Today we receive the Beatitudes – what this Divine Child came to tell us.

Each Christmastide, if we listen and watch attentively, the Lord shows us something new about Himself, we see or hear something we never knew before, our relationship with Him is deepened.

What did He reveal to you this year?

Town in Bloom Project 2026

As you know, we have had great success these past few years with our 'Town in Bloom' entries. We have a fantastic, dedicated, hardworking Gardening Team who work hard all year round, making sure the church grounds are as beautiful and welcoming as possible. (They are also always looking out for new members!) This year, the area adjacent to the porch will be our focus for the competition. (Above) Susan is now gathering ideas for the new display. If you have any ideas or if you would like to be involved, please speak to her!

Candlemas 2nd February

We officially end the season of Christmastide this Monday, 2nd February, with the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, also known as Candlemas. During this Mass the candles we will use in the New Year ahead will be blessed. Then, on 3rd February we commemorate St Blaize, a Bishop and Martyr, and as is custom, we receive his blessing of the throat, and two newly blessed candles are used for the blessing. Mass on Monday (2nd) and Tuesday (3rd) will be at 7pm.

Family learning from the Catechism:

This weekend we are encouraged to think about the Beatitudes. Here is what the Catechism has to say:

1716 The Beatitudes are at the heart of Jesus' preaching. They take up the promises made to the chosen people since Abraham. the Beatitudes fulfil the promises by ordering them no longer merely to the possession of a territory, but to the Kingdom of heaven.

1717 The Beatitudes depict the countenance of Jesus Christ and portray his charity. They express the vocation of the faithful associated with the glory of his Passion and Resurrection; they shed light on the actions and attitudes characteristic of the Christian life; they are the paradoxical promises that sustain hope in the midst of tribulations; they proclaim the blessings and rewards already secured, however dimly, for Christ's disciples; they have begun in the lives of the Virgin Mary and all the saints.
