

True God and True Man

Parish Mission:

We are here to make Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament better known, loved honoured, worshiped & adored. All of our efforts in this parish will be geared towards helping every individual discover the Lord who is waiting for them to approach Him in the tabernacle.

So far this Lent our Readings on Sundays have focused us on the seen and unseen, the natural and the supernatural.

The First week focused on Jesus's Humanity; the Second week, for balance, focused on Jesus's Divinity.

Last week Jesus was thirsty at the well – and it is human to thirst, and then He revealed supernatural knowledge of the Samaritan woman.

We've heard of spiritual hunger and thirst and physical hunger and thirst. We've also heard about supernatural food and drink and natural food and drink.

Today we are faced with two types of blindness, physical and spiritual.

A man, blind since birth, is given his sight back by the Lord.

The Pharisees, even having witnessed the miracle of the blind man given his sight, still they denied that Jesus is the Messiah, the Christ.

Who is more blind? Those who are physically blind or the Pharisees who have the use of their eyes but cannot see the things of God – spiritually blind?

Who is more hungry or thirsty, those who are physically suffering or those who hunger and thirst spiritually?

Hail Glorious Saint Patrick!

On the first Saturday of the month, we have a quiz night and if there is a major Saint's Feast Day in the month we take them as our inspiration.

This month we focused on St Patrick. The evening was another huge success and our thanks to Jim for being the Quiz Host for the evening. Cecilia is usually asking the questions, and we are very grateful for all she does to make these evenings so much fun.

At halftime we had stew and mash – which was delicious! Thanks to Lucia, Lucie, Frances, Helen and Patricia for providing the food. Our next Quiz will actually be on Saturday 25th April and we are delighted that Cllr Cathrine Clark (our Town Mayor) will be the Quiz Master on the Night!

Preparing for Holy Week: Maundy Thursday

Each week we will take a look at one of the days of Holy Week – the holiest week of the year for Catholics.

Millions of people visit the Upper Room each year on Pilgrimage.

In that Upper Room Jesus met with His Disciples for the last time before He was crucified, and we commemorate that meeting on Maundy Thursday.

There He foretells His betrayal. From that room Judas Iscariot leaves to arrange when and where he would hand Jesus over.

In the Upper Room the Disciples (a word meaning to follow) become Apostles (a word meaning to be sent) and to show this change the Lord washes their feet – the limbs we use to follow or to go.

Jesus made the Disciples Bishops – the First Bishops of the Church and we today share in an unbroken line of 'Apostolic Succession', which means every Catholic priest can be traced back to the Upper Room through the laying on of hands.

Jesus not only gave us the Sacrament of the Priesthood but also the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

The Lord gave us the words that Priests use to transform ordinary bread and wine into the Lord's Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. The Bread ceases to exist and Jesus takes its place. Jesus doesn't become 'bread', bread becomes Jesus.

After leaving the Upper Room and following His arrest, the Lord spends the night in a prison cell (which is also visited by millions each year) where He is mocked and tortured, crowned with thorns and spat upon by the Soldiers.

Family learning from the Catechism:

On Maundy Thursday, in the Upper Room, Jesus established two sacraments (i) the Priesthood (ii) Holy Communion. Here is what the Catechism says about the Institution of the Eucharist:

1337 The Lord, having loved those who were his own, loved them to the end. Knowing that the hour had come to leave this world and return to the Father. In order to leave them a pledge of this love, in order never to depart from his own and to make them sharers in his Passover, he instituted the Eucharist as the memorial of his death and Resurrection, and commanded his apostles to celebrate it until his return; "thereby he constituted them priests of the New Testament."

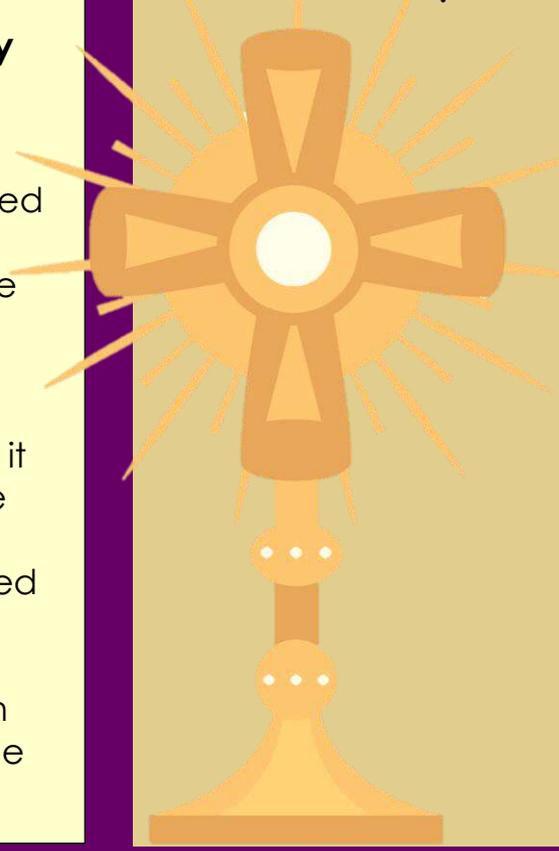

1338 The three synoptic Gospels and St. Paul have handed on to us the account of the institution of the Eucharist; St. John, for his part, reports the words of Jesus in the synagogue of Capernaum that prepare for the institution of the Eucharist: Christ calls himself the bread of life, come down from heaven.
