

The Rock upon which the Lord builds His Church

'You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.'

Our Gospel today reminds us of how Jesus designs His Church – Peter is the head.

St Peter is the first Pope and he and all his successors have been entrusted with 'binding and loosing' with the Power of the Keys to the Kingdom of Heaven.

St Peter and his successors have a duty to safeguard and to hand on the faith, intact, whole and unchanged.

The 'Petrine Office' (held by the successors of St Peter) is 400 years older than the Bible is.

For those 400 years the Popes were clarifying and teaching, they were settling heretical disputes and leading the Lord's Flock, faithfully.

Today as we celebrate Sts Peter and Paul let's remember to say a prayer for Pope Leo our modern-day successor to Peter the Rock, the holder of the Petrine Office.

In April 2028 we will celebrate 40 years since the blessing of the Foundation Stone.

Preparations for this momentous day are now beginning!

Parish Fundraiser!

During Mass on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, our fundraising campaign was launched.

Our goal is to raise £20,000 to help replace the church floor, paint the church, build a porch and replace other items in the sanctuary.

Twenty months from now, on the 9th April 2028 it will be exactly 40 years since the foundation church was solemnly blessed.

Our aim is to have the church ready before then.

Pledge Cards are available. Please take one, complete it and return it to Fr John. There you will find options to donate monthly or to make a one-off contribution to the fund. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Family learning from the Catechism:

This weekend the Gospel calls us to think about the Petrine Office. Here is what the Catechism has to say....

552 Simon Peter holds the first place in the college of the Twelve; Jesus entrusted a unique mission to him. Through a revelation from the Father, Peter had confessed: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Our Lord then declared to him: "You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it." Christ, the "living Stone", thus assures his Church, built on Peter, of victory over the powers of death. Because of the faith he confessed Peter will remain the unshakable rock of the Church. His mission will be to keep this faith from every lapse and to strengthen his brothers in it.

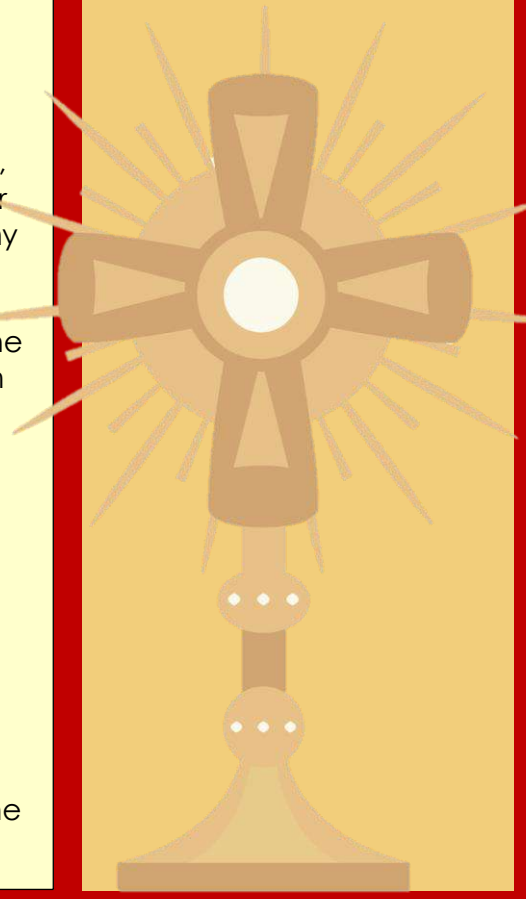

553 Jesus entrusted a specific authority to Peter: "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." The "power of the keys" designates authority to govern the house of God, which is the Church. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, confirmed this mandate after his Resurrection: "Feed my sheep." The power to "bind and loose" connotes the authority to absolve sins, to pronounce doctrinal judgements, and to make disciplinary decisions in the Church. Jesus entrusted this authority to the Church through the ministry of the apostles and in particular through the ministry of Peter, the only one to whom he specifically entrusted the keys of the kingdom.
