FR MARK WRITES: DISCIPLESHIP PATHWAY

Over the last few weeks, Fr Pedro has kindly been writing about our parish "Discipleship Pathway". My hope is just to pull this together into one place as we round off the series...

Sit with Jesus

If we think of the disciples at the beginning of John's Gospel, the start following Jesus and, after a short exchange, he simply says to them, "Come and See".

Disciples begin by being with Jesus and discovering there's a place for them with him, alongside him, even in him and with him in us.

Become like Jesus

But, if we want to be a disciple of Jesus we can't just sit with Jesus...there's another step we need to take. Jesus says to us, "Come, follow me".

We need to take time to learn (about him), to grow in our knowledge and trust of him, to go deeper in our relationship with him. Let friendship with Jesus shape your prayer, mind, heart, relationships and life. Allow Him to transform you more and more into his image and likeness.

Go with Jesus

Just before he returns to heaven, Jesus says to his disciples: "Go and make disciples". We are called to become disciples who make disciples. We are sent, but never alone. We are always with Jesus who also says, "I will be with you until the end of time".

Jesus needs us to serve and to bear witness to him and the Gospel message, by word and example. We are invited to offer our gifts in service, share faith, make disciples and take part in Christ's mission in the world. We need to put what we've learnt into practice.

What is a disciple?

A disciple is a learner, an apprentice of Jesus, someone who stays with Him, learns from Him and increasingly lives as he lives in service of others.

Discipleship begins with relationship.

Jesus does not first say, "Get everything sorted." He says, "Come and see." Then, "Follow me." And finally, "Go." We spend our whole Christian life living these invitations more deeply.

Cont'd...

The pathway is not three levels

- Mature disciples still need to sit with Jesus.
- Someone exploring faith may already be serving others generously.
- A lifelong Catholic may discover a fresh need for encounter, healing or conversion.
- At different seasons, one movement may be especially important, but all three belong together.

Each and every one of us is invited to come closer to Jesus Christ, in hope and joy.

That is already at the heart of our parish vision. We believe Jesus can heal and restore our lives by the power of the Holy Spirit. The Father holds us as we journey in faith; Jesus transforms us through his Word and Presence; the Holy Spirit fills us and sends us out into the world.

The Discipleship Pathway is simply a way of helping us to notice that journey and respond to it. It is not a new club for the keen, and it is not a checklist for "good Catholics". It is an invitation to ask:

Where is Jesus inviting me to take one step closer to Him as his disciple?

Wherever you are today (settled, searching, returning, uncertain, growing, or serving), there is a place for you in and with Jesus.

Where am I now?

Take a few quiet minutes with Jesus and notice which questions stir something in you.

SIT WITH JESUS

- Do I experience church as a place where I am known, welcomed and able to be honest?
- Is there a question, hurt or longing I need to bring to Jesus?
- Would I benefit from Alpha, prayer or simply slowing myself down and spending more time with him?

BECOME LIKE JESUS

- What is currently helping me to grow more like Jesus, and what has become stuck?
- What rhythm of prayer, Scripture, Sacraments or community would help me? (Do I have a "rule of life"?)
- Is Jesus asking me for a concrete "yes" in some area of my life?

GO WITH JESUS

- Which gifts or experiences might God want to use for others?
- Who is one person I could encourage, serve or invite?
- Where has Jesus already sent me to bear witness to Him? At home, work, school or in the community?

Lord Jesus, what is my next faithful step with you?
